

Year 9 Autumn 1- Drawing.

Tonal shading example with highlights and shadows

Graded pencils allow you to demonstrate a bigger range of tone within your drawing

How are you assessed?

Researching Art

Experimenting with Media

Recording and drawing

Responding

You are awarded a mark out of 16 in each area.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/guides/zc7sfrd/revision/2>

Cath Riley

Cath Riley studied embroidery, she is now most famous for her detailed (photo realist) pencil drawings. Her work has featured in major exhibitions and has been purchased and published by companies and organisations, including Nike, Adidas, The New York Times, The Economist, and Aston Martin.

Bronze Arts Award.

- Grow your talents, explore the arts, be a creative leader & get a qualification.
- It is a Level 1 qualification and is delivered in your lessons.
- You will collect evidence in an individual art portfolio showing knowledge and understanding of Art, Creativity and communication.

Transcription	A transcription is when you take a painting or drawing and recreate it to understand how it is made.
Observational drawing	Drawing or painting from items or objects directly in front of you.
Tone	The lightness or darkness of something
Grid Drawing	A method used to improve and develop accuracy when drawing.
Linear	Use of line only to represent form.